Wow all the hate for someone that did nothing wrong. You all must be one of those slimy guys 12 year old fans. Why are you so full of hate? This person Purity did nothing wrong but try to help you all by taking a game that wasn't even really worked on. Why are you so ungrateful? Why do you harass her in this way? I just read about this site and had to see for myself what kind of humans sink to this low level and I am shocked. Well my thoughts on this is none of you were in her shoes so none of you have a right to speak about what you do not really know and after listening to that recorded call between her and that slimy guy if you still attack her when he himself showed he was in the wrong and she did everything he wanted when she posted what he wanted per the call (the blog she posted with the explanation of why his take on the Disney character was removed) and then you saw how he backed out and refused to hold up his end and instead posted hate videos about her and her people and posted personal telephone numbers and email addresses in his videos so you fans could call and harass them then I feel sorry for all of you because you do not care what the truth is all you care about is trashing someone to make yourselves look good and it makes you look horrible. You will never be anything in life until you stop being hateful. She in her heart knows she did everything for the fans but some of you are as the other poster said ungrateful. All I can do is pray for your souls and hope you never face the bitter sad acts that you are inflicting on her. If this gives you pleasure then you really are a sad person who will get it back a hundred times more by Karma. It was said Purity is the winner in this but there are no winners just sad examples of low self-esteem which you all have while she walks away with her head held up and knowing she did nothing wrong and everything right for some that can't be happy with the work others do for them. Well keep being hateful because one day when you need a real friend to back you, you will find yourselves all alone. Good bye and God Bless and hopefully you will see how hurtful you truly are for no reason... Enjoy your misery one day what goes around will come around and you will be more sorry then Tia could ever be. If that slimy guy is in here all I can say is you're not a man or an adult and just because your ratings are down doesn't give you the right to stir trouble. Too bad you can't be a man and end this instead of loving the strife but again what goes around will come around so may God have mercy on your soul because when he sends you to hell you will need it.
