Pwto copy of life threatening
life of Senator Voinovici
I'm sending this as four separate faxes; about the only way I can do this with the fax software on our computer.

This appeared to be a greeting card, which the sender cut into four pieces. The first page I'm sending is the inside left, which had been cut into three pieces. I've assembled them in what I believe is the right order.

The next page will be the inside right of the greeting card, on which the sender had changed the printed greeting, as well as added some comments of his/her own.

I will also send the envelope, which has an address on it, as well as the front side of the greeting card.

I can be contacted at [_____].

Thanks ever so much for forwarding this information to the proper authorities. Obviously we are both concerned about [_____] as well as the fact that this person knows our address, and made a threatening reference to the person to whom it was addressed.
NOTE:

This is the inside right page. Due to the way my scanning software and fax software work, the top line on each page is cut off. The top line on the inside left page says "Hey you stinking white bitch". The top line on this page says "We don't want no TV bullshit".

Re: 9A-CV-NEW, 01/09/2001

advised that the US Secret Service agent provided him with a copy of the threatening communication mailed to which once again was signed at the end in his name. A comparison of the communication left with the US Secret Service and the note received by indicated that there is little doubt that the two communications were sent by the same individual. provided the Secret Service Agent's business card, which was that of US Secret Service, 6100 Rockside Woods Boulevard, Room 440, Independence, Ohio, telephone 216/706-4437.

US Capital Police, 119 D. Street Northeast, Room 605, Washington, DC, telephone was contacted by the writer, at which time was advised of the receipt of the threatening communication by US Senator George V. Voinovich and the sending of a similar communication to who is assigned to the Office of Threat and Risk Assessment by the Capital Police, was advised that the Bureau was making efforts to coordinate the investigation relative to the threatening communication received by Voinovich.

Same date US Secret Service SA telephone 216/706-4437, was contacted regarding the receipt of the threatening communication by directed against US Senator Greg V. Voinovich as well as the investigation conducted at the Open Door Baptist Missionary Church. Writer and SA agreed that based on examination of the two letters it appears that the same individual was responsible for sending the materials to each of the victims. Inasmuch as the communications sent to at the Republican Headquarters had been handled by a fewer number of people, it was determined that the Voinovich letter would be released to the custody of the US Secret Service for processing along with the communication directed to and that the US Secret Service would pursue the investigation relative to letters received by both and Senator Voinovich.

[Redacted] stated he only wants to have a sit down meeting with the Senator and explain his problems and to see if the Senator could help him. In addition, [Redacted] also acknowledged sending numerous facsimiles to the FBI, Senator VOINOVICH's office and other federal agencies.

[Redacted] was well aware that continuing to make threatening telephone calls or threats via facsimile would be of a criminal nature and would be prosecuted. [Redacted] stated that the interviewing agents can rest assured that neither Senator VOINOVICH or the FBI would hear from [Redacted] again.
