Sphere of Uranus/Kether

Title: The Glory

Color: Brilliant white

Stone: Diamond

Incense: Nag Champa... other Kether incense are very expensive and often hard to find.

Metal: Platinum

Images: A picture of yourself. Why... it's a DEEP mystery... ask why when you contact this sphere. The planetary symbol of Uranus.

- Immerse yourself in complete and utter sacredness.
- Understand TRUE divinity and your personal link to it.
- Harmonize yourself with true universal unity and know the eternal wonder of universal perpetuity.
- Introduce yourself to and gain audiences with beings of untold power and purity and become a more splendid being from just being in contact with them.
- Discuss attainment to and fulfillment of your "Great Work" and achieve TRUE adept-hood.
- Learn how to become "one" with the universe but not lose yourself in the process.
- Ask to read your personal chapter in THE Book of Life.
- See great and wonderful future technologies.
- Work to bring about the TRUE evolution of humankind, free from crusty reptilian influences.

A being you MUST call for is Metatron. Metatron is the highest and most powerful of the Archangels.

Metatron is the "voice" of "God" and the ONLY being who has EVER laid eyes upon the true face of "God".

Archangels/Angels belong to NO religion; they are beings/constructs of the "Prime Creator" and serve their functions masterfully. Metatron's face cannot be seen, he is gigantic and his presence is near overpowering. His is very luminescent and while his light should be blinding it's still soft enough to glaze at. He is solid brilliant white with a human figure. He generally holds what is THE "Book of Life" and something will let you read what it says about you... but only you. Metatron will often send you to other beings of this sphere depending on your needs and will help you in whatever question you have about your "Great Work". You will NEVER be allowed to look upon "God", you might as well not even ask. If by chance he says yes you can... you are NOT speaking with Metatron and you need to evaluate to possibility of leaving wherever you are immediately.

Sphere of the Zodiac/Chokmah

Title: Great Wisdom

Color: Silvery White

Stone: Turquoise

Incense: Musk

Metal: Aluminum

Image: A wise male deity, old fatherly figure and or Astrological wheel

- Discover and master all manner of occult energy practices such as telepathy, clairvoyance, clairsentience, remote viewing, remote healing, bi-location, directing energy, thought projection and energy manipulation of all types, prophecy, divination and channeling.
- Learn to become a direct energy conduit for the unlimited energy flow of the universe.
- Understand the deepest mysteries of male sexual power.
- See potential future incarnations and possibly contact them.
- Discover the secret of life.

Beings you MUST make contact with:

Neptune/Poseidon, Odin and the Dagdha. These three mighty father figures of humanity of powerful and knowledgeable beyond measure. They are the epitome par-excellence of magick and occult power, para-normal happenings, as well as endless male sexual prowess. There is no subject they are not well versed in and if approached with honor and gratitude they are always willing to mentor you. Do your own research into each of them so you know what to expect. Because of their might no other beings dare fuck with them so just saying their names out loud eliminates the chance of being bothered by less desirable entities. The ONLY other being whose name would be even more powerful in clearing all areas of all hostile entities is Thor and by a very, very small margin.

Sphere of Saturn/Binah

Title: Grave Understanding

Beings you MUST contact:

Jupiter/Zeus. Jupiter is the king of kings and God of Gods. He is a powerful, self assured, highly confident leader. A shrewd, calculating mind with the self authority and personal power to make the sky rumble and hurl thunder bolts. He generally is very positive, but makes you earn your teaching and he commands the utmost respect. His name carries SERIOUS weight and speaking it on this realm or any other will instantly command attention. Jupiter can grant you wealth and teach you the difference of being wealthy, successful and prosperous, as compared to miserly, greedy and back stabbing.

Byton: A massive Greek titan looking spirit, very Olympian in nature. Heavily muscled and usually shirtless but draped in very expensive looking robes and jewelry. He teaches the cultivation and application of personal power for material gain and leadership skills. He teaches you how to accumulate energy in your base of power and focus it upward. His sigil looks like a completed pyramid with a spherical base. He HATES the illuminati and speaks strongly against their pyramid symbol that teaches the power is at the top, when in fact the REAL power is in the base and benefits ALL people not just the greedy cowardly so-called elite.

The sphere of Mars/Geburah

Title: The destroyer

Color: Blood red

Incense: Dragon's Blood

- Learn courage and will power.
- Forge a terrifying fighting spirit.
- Learn how to cut out unwanted influences in your life, wear down obstacles and plow through barriers.

Beings you MUST contact:

Mars/Aries, Tyr and Moriganna. These Gods and Goddess represent absolutely unstoppable forces of fury and aggression in both male and female types. But they are far from simple blood thirsty savages. Their rage and ability to inspire their followers to arms is to help defend them and their way of life. These powerful deities are master tacticians and while they can be harsh and uncompromising the lessons they teach at the end of their boots will make you stronger, tougher and ready to handle yourself in even the direst circumstances. If you truly want to develop a healthy degree of raw power and understand the function of destruction they will teach you... just be ready to take a couple lumps along the way.

Kamael: An archangel that is second only to Michael in warrior skills. Kamael is a mighty being with lighting flashing in his eyes, grand steel wings and heavily armored. He can help you in making amends for karmic transgressions and point you into tasks that will remove the guilt from your soul. He is also a very powerful legal ally that will help you in legal battles as long as you are in the right of "moral" law.

The sphere of the Sun/Tipareth

Title: The splendid beauty

Color: Gold/bright yellow

Incense: Frankincense

Stone: Citrine

Metal: Gold

Image: The sun, a rooster, a lion, the planetary symbol of the sun.

- Spend time with entities that are truly inspiring and the embodiment of healing, higher aspirations, music, harmony and purification.
- Learn the art of regeneration and rejuvenation.
- Learn to use the sun’s energy to empower ritual objects, ceremonies, foods, drinks and herbs.
- Learn the nature of a spiritual life and how to still experience a wonderful earthly existence.
- Learn what the REAL “Christ” energy is and what true selfless action is all about.

Beings you MUST contact:

Apollo: A God of solar power, healing, art, music and prophecy. Beautiful and beyond kind, he is among one of the most compassionate and benevolent entities in the whole multi-universe. He will teach you the art of self healing and self care, how to purify yourself and others, how to inspire others to higher ideals and how to stand against the sickness of the transplutonian madness. He is a skilled archer and will teach you how to make an astral bow of amazing power... and all that is just for starters.

Raphael: The archangel of light and healing, known throughout the multi-universe as the “Divine Physician”. There is no disease he cannot heal, no curse or blight he cannot lift. He appears as a holographic projection of light is glorious to behold and conversations with him can keep you uplifted and inspired to acts of great compassion for weeks afterwards. Ask him for lessons in healing and how to increase the light of your spirit.

The sphere of Venus/Netzach

Title: The masterpiece of love, the house of muses

Color: Emerald green

Incense: Rose

Stone: Emerald/moss agate

Metal: Copper

Image: A beautiful woman, a cat, or the planetary symbol of Venus.

- Find your own personal muse, a being that inspires you to create and perform works and acts of beauty.
- Discover the ways of love, friendship and romantic endeavors.
- Find your own personal artistic medium for self expression and to influence the emotions of others.
- Learning how to create settings with the use of color, props, lighting, sounds and smells to cultivate the appropriate emotional response for yourself and over others for specific rituals or functions.
- Learn how to intensify your own raw emotions, raise and sustain them for ritual use.
- Learn to cultivate, circulate and store female sexual power.

Beings you MUST contact:

Venus/Aphrodite and Freyja: These Goddesses are the primal sexual goddesses that gave birth to countless human souls and are both the mothers and lovers of humanity. These women are fully content and unashamed of their love of physical pleasure, sexual desire and female power. It is said that Venus/Aphrodite shook the universe awake with such an orgasm that its reverberations keep the universe in motion still. Now that is POWER.

A similar story is told about Freyja, how every night she sexually exhausts the world's greatest mortal warriors and her final orgasm wakes the sun and sets the day into motion.

They embody all that it is to be a powerful, liberated woman, free to self express and be as creative as they desire. They can teach you to embrace liberation, set yourself free and live a life of purpose and adventure.

They can also teach a man how to be strong enough for a primal, sexually free wild woman and further claim his masculinity through understanding his powerful feminine current.

Queen Maeve: Another power female figure of immense beauty, sexual prowess and physical strength. She too was also known for sexually exhausting large groups of powerful men every night and her orgasms were said to cause tremors in the earth. She is a Goddess of Sovereignty and virtual king maker and bestower/delegator of masculine power, like the lady of the lake who gives the worthy heroes Excalibur to defend her realm and people with.

She is a standalone queen and doesn't need a man, but knows the balancing force male and female sexual energies create.

Many of Celtic mythologies greatest warriors fell to her on the battle field as she was a warrioress on par with the Morrighanna.

She can teach women the power of their beauty and who beauty supports strength and how to be fiercely independent and choose to be with a man not feel like they need to be, she can act as an example for women how to be Queens and warrioresses.

For man she can't teach them the skills they lack, she is a bit harsh on men but they will be better for her instructions. As she is a king maker, she will mold a man into a worthy king and hero.

Sphere of Mercury/Hod

Title: Sparkling wit

Color: Flashing orange

Incense: Gum mastic

Stone: Fire Opal

Metal: Mercury

Image: Ape, ibis, raven and the planetary symbol of Mercury

- Come into contact with your pure intellect and rationality.
- Learn to control your thoughts and articulate speech to better convey the power of your emotions and will force.
- Study with masters of sciences, intellect, and all scholarly pursuits.
- Learn sacred geometry, mathematics, research, design, engineering and ritual outlines.
- Hone your skills of observation and study for charts, graphs and tables.
- Train your mind to think quickly, sharply, and accurately.
- Develop superior linguistic, verbal and conversational skills.

Beings you MUST contact:

Mercury/Hermes: The god of magick, science, commerce, athletics and thieves. Mercury is a Magician second to none and master of the spoken word, of magickal science and astral travel. He is the voice of the Gods, carrying the prayers of the people to their ears and their messages back to the people. If you are going to be a Magician, you MUST be on good terms with Mercury/Hermes. He enjoys quick wit and often teaches in very expected ways that are often humorous, if not sometimes at the expense of yourself. But learn to laugh at yourself and understand it's not done out of malice but to increase your awareness and you will learn far more than you think.

Michael: The archangel who is one of the most powerful forces of protection in the whole multi-universe. He is a warrior par-excellence, dominating the "devil" into submission/being put to work for "god". Michael is a blazing archangel in bright oranges and greens, long red hair, famous and impossibly sharp flaming sword and giant flaming wings. He is a brilliant general and battle tactician and absolutely fearless. His name makes all entities tremble, like Thor, he is known in all realms as a force you don't mess with. Some find it strange that he is the archangel of Hod and not Geburah or Mars. But there is a definite reason for that. Michael is the defender of "God" and as a Magician takes to his or her circle and creates a micro-universe, they become "God" of the universe, so Michael stands as their protector ready to be called upon to enforce the will of "God", both Macro and Micro.

Call upon Michael for powerful protection rituals and information of how to bless your magickal sword so that all spirits who see it know without any doubt Michael stands with you.

Sphere of the Moon

Title: The astral ocean, the foundation

Color: Puce or deep purple

Incense: Jasmine

Stone: Moonstone

Metal: Silver

Image: A powerfully built man, an elephant, the planetary symbol of the moon.

- Build your dream and astral bodies, see what they look like and form them to your own liking.
- Learn to strengthen your imagination and bend and shape the astral "plastic" to your will.
- Learn to do ritual magick in your dreams or astral realm.
- Come face to face with the creations of your sub conscious, build them up or tear them down depending on your will.
- Learn to go toe to toe with hostile and aggressive entities that hunt humans and harm them.
- Learn to lucid dream and astral project.

Beings you MUST contact:

Gabriel: The archangel who is the strength of "God". Much like Michael he serves as the strength of "God" who is both Macro and Micro (The Magician). Gabriel is the strength the Magician shapes the Astral "Plastic" with and molds it to his or her will. Call upon Gabriel for this strength and ask how you can develop such a relationship with this most wonderful archangel.

Artemis: Sister to Apollo, master huntress and dream time Goddess. She can teach you to hone your focus and teach you the mystery of the bow and arrow, the power of tension and release in building your astral realms blending sustained thought, desire, will, work ethic and trust in your magick. She can also be called upon to help you gain retribution over those who have truly harmed you needlessly and how to track anything and anyone down on the dream and astral worlds. She is feared by the violators of the human race and she eagerly helps and trains you to hunt down reptilian, greys and illuminati entities.

Hercules: Much for the same reason and functions of the archangel Gabriel but as his not an angel he can operate outside of the limitations and restrictions of angelic beings. He lends his strength to helping you support your dream and astral work and helping shape it. He is a powerful astral and dream protector and LOVES to tear apart reptilian fuck bags with his hands and teeth. He can be asked to protect loved ones and especially children and is a very worthwhile bodyguard and ally to have.
