In Project Mirai? 1/6 out of the galaxy is one that I always enjoyed playing. Overall I think I liked Romeo & Cinderella a bit more, although 1/6 was fun to play in Mirai.

I ended up getting a perfect on my first playing of 1 2 Fancub on normal difficulty. I am still annoyed that doing so did not just unlock hard mode for any future songs. I mean, how much better could I really do in a standard playthrough to indicate that I don't really need to be forced through normal mode on everything in the first playthrough.

Clear a song 3 times for a background, or some outfits unlock some. I don't remember how I got the GUMI background, but I think it was due to getting 20 visits from her and all outfits for her, which is 5 clears of the 4 songs she appears in.

Fail songs 30 times for Stamp #55.

Try booting your Vita into safe mode then rebuilding the database.

If that doesn't work then you might have to redownload the game.
Just remember that save data is tied to digital games so back it up on your PC or PS3 first. Or if you have PS+ then upload your save to the cloud.

So I'm hosting a mini tournament amongst junkies using PM

The prize will be some of the last [REDACTED] available in this area

Demo song for them to know what their getting into will be me playing matryoshka? And then they get a turn each on hello planet

The challenge will be whoever can keep the highest combo on the kitsune song, score for tie breakers

And then a bonus round where they get a weeks supply if any one of them can get all so notes on to me is Cinderella

The most experienced player in the rhythm game genre' last game was o2jam on release date

Should I change a few things?

Today I saw twitter post saying: "RIP Samfree" and I was like: "haha, what? did he quit?" now I saw this post and was like: "honoring? what do you mean? haha". Then it came to me what everyone was actually saying. I'm so dense.

Realistically, how do you want the home release to be priced?
With 200+ songs and download only, it's safe to say it won't be a standard $60 game.

I hope there will be song packs you can unlock with a one time payment, or buy each song individually.

What do you think is fair? A one time payment of $60 for the base game + 50 songs with 3 $40 expansions each with 50 more songs seems reasonable. Worst case scenario is JPSN only, and you need to rent the game paying exclusively with JPSN dollars.
