>Mom, it's a real fetish. but at least a portion of the stories that you hear are pure bullshit, especially when they talk about how the wife had kids with some nigger and they're raising them.
It's very possible that those kinds of postings are bullshit pushed by the fetishists themselves. If humans are capable of great feats, they are also capable of great failings, including this kind of self-deception.

A very good point. It's one thing to tell a company you won't be watching their content. It's another to tell that company's advertisers you won't be seeing their ads.

Even worse. It's a harsh thing to tell them you will stop buying their products and tell everyone else you know to do so too until they stop supporting a network that gets it's shows written by pomographers!
They fear nothing more than a public shitstorm

That is pretty fucked up no doubt about it. I wouldn't put it past nick too, their shows are extremely sexual and they're good at being subtle and the show is so fast paced sometimes it's easier for a parent to not care and dismiss it.

It doesn't seem like it's only fetishism that is driving the cucks.
Cucking yourself and your people, have become a sign that you are among the good and enlightened, so perhaps this made some of them turn on cuckoldry in a sexual way?
Brainwashed to think biological cuckoldry is morally correct => the brainwashed starts to dream of sexual cuckoldry?

Bug chasers and cucks are basically in the throes of self destruction anyways. A .22 behind the ear at the edge of a pit is in many ways a logical conclusion for their behavior. It also spares them some dignity by ceasing forever their offensive behavior as well as protecting communities from them.
