

FREE

GAMES

Written by itsflanders

Version 1.0

Table of Content

This e-book contains the following pages:

- Preparing –
- Why a proxy? -
- Getting the free games –
- FAQ –

Terms of Use

Everything explained in the following guide is meant for educational purposes only. I have what so ever, no responsibilities over what you do using the methods that are being described in this e-book. Unless you have been granted prior, written consent from Jesse Buitenhuis, you may not Reproduce, distribute, or transfer the Software, or portions thereof, to any third party.

What do I need?

A brain

Common sense

A battle.net account

Preparing

In order to get these free games you will need the following:

- 1) A valid e-mail address
- 2) A battle.net account with country set as Netherlands
- 3) 5 minutes of common sense
- 4) A proxy.

Why a proxy?

Why would you want a proxy? Simple, you don't want to get IP banned by Battle.NET for getting free games.

Getting the free games

First login on your battle.net account. After that press on Games & Codes once the menu pop-ups press on Buy Digital Games.

Now select a game, I will be doing Diablo II.

Press on Buy Digital Version and go to the payment page.
Now follow the image.

☐  ☒ Automatische Incasso ☐

Bank Name *

Bank Account Number *

Bank Account Holders Name *

Billing Information

☒ Use my current contact information

Once you are done, continue the order and you will have your game!

Success!
Diablo II® was added to your account.

 GAME MANAGEMENT
Diablo II®

GAME KEY:
GGVYVJMTGFVKGFNT

REGISTERED:
Jan 26, 2011 11:36:07 AM

Q: Why the Netherlands?

A: Because you need to use Postbank as bank name.

Q: Why Postbank?

A: It merged with ING 3 years ago but due to a bug in the system you can still use it as bank name.

Q: Why does the account number need to start with 53?

A: This is because of the bank.

Have fun,
Itsflanders.