Yes, today I just received the money since they only allow Paypal cashouts on Mondays and Fridays.

Just thought you'd like to know ClixSense sent you $11.02 USD.

Thanks for your business

That was my most recent cashout, the reason I dont have more is because that check took forever to be sent to my house, at least a month. Well, usually you can probably make say $20 a day, since the surveys they have give you a shit ton of money.

Offers

Offers basically shown above are like surveys, but they pay you high with money IF you qualify for the survey. It happens, when you dont qualify for the survey, it gets frustrating, but dont give up, you can earn big from those 11 minutes to earn $4.00 from it. The ones that give you less time is kinda hard, it all depends on what the subject is about. Just enter random crap into them, then when you do finish, it should say Congratulations! Once you refresh, you get the money!

There are other offers like the ones that varie.

These ones you can easily farm off of, though they only give you one cent, but its daily so you can easily earn fast money from it. There are also things called tasks. ItsFluffy who introduced me into this method, says you can also farm off of these thing there are loads of them.

Just one cent for a 30 second google search, how awesome is that. BUT they may have you look up certain links to fit the criteria. Lets say it tells you to look up Facebook Profile Obama. Ok, then you look around for the link, but there is only one correct answer. But I may sound a bit off because my english sucks, but there are other offers like "Classify Adult Images", "Provide contrustive feedback on website", and others like that. I also farm off them as well.

The Grid

Its called "ClixGrid" its basically the same as the Probox Grid or NeoBux Grid. But the amount earned it different as shown below.
