

OF ALL SAD WORDS
OF TONGUE OR PEN,

The saddest are these:
“IT MIGHT’VE BEEN!”

– John Greenleaf Whittier (17 December 1807 - 7 September 1892), Quaker poet and abolitionist.